Inspiring, challenging and familiar

Parmant Aloysius is a small-scale vmbo-t school in Eindhoven where you can discover who you are, develop your talents, and dare to dream big.

A place full of inspiration
Here, you'll follow Inspirion Education. We prepare you for the future with an education that's fully tailored to your needs in the 21st century. You won't just learn from books, but also through active, hands-on participation. Our school has four inspiration labs, each with its own theme. You'll work on projects there together with your classmates. You can get creative, discover new things, and carry out research. The inspiration labs feature an open-plan space where you can work independently or in small groups. The classrooms surround this space. That's where you'll have lessons and take your tests in peace.

Learning together and developing yourself
You'll learn with others as well as independently, always with the support of your teachers. You'll discover what you are good at and what you enjoy. We teach you knowledge and skills that you can use both now and in the future. At times, you may need a little extra help, and at other times you may want more of a challenge. Inspirion Education is tailored to your needs and makes learning varied, adventurous and inspiring.

You don't have to decide yet

Parmant Antoon is a lower secondary school for all vmbo levels. Unsure which level is right for you? Here you don't have to decide yet, you have the time to work it out at your own pace.

Discover your talents and grow
The transition from primary to secondary school can be a bit daunting. That's why we make this step together. With small class sizes and dedicated teachers, we make sure you get the support you need. We help you grow, build your confidence and develop your knowledge and skills. And we do that in a really fun way: through the AntoonRoute. This pathway is all about your development. Step by step, you'll discover what you're good at and where your talents lie.

Ready for the next step
After two years at Parmant Antoon, you'll be ready for upper secondary school. That means going to a different school. For example, to havo, vmbo or practical education. This step will be easy for you, because you'll be well prepared. You'll know just as much as your new classmates and feel comfortable in your own skin. Ready to take on the world.

We're busy being calm

Parmant Helder is a small havo/vwo school in Eindhoven. You can get your diploma with us and go on to higher professional education or university, just like other havo/vwo schools. But the way we do this sets us apart.

A place where you can be yourself
Our learners need a little extra support, often because they have a form of autism, ADD and/or ADHD. Maybe you can relate: you're perfectly capable of managing havo or vwo, but sometimes learning doesn't go as smoothly as you'd like. And that's when getting the support you need can really help. We understand that, and offer you a calm, structured environment with the right guidance to help you achieve your goals.

Moving on or getting your diploma with us
We offer you the opportunity and support to go to a different larger school in your third year to continue your havo or vwo education. Not quite ready for that yet? No problem. We can also help you take that step in the upper years. And if it works out better for you to complete your secondary education with us, that's also an option, of course.
